

Continuing Legal Education IBM, the Holocaust, and the Ethics of Technology in the 21st Century

with Scholar-in-Residence Edwin Black

Washington State
HOLOCAUST EDUCATION
RESOURCE CENTER
teaching & learning for humanity

“Backed by exhaustive research, Black’s case is simple and stunning.”

Michael Hirsch,
Newsweek

Join us for this seminar at the
Westin Seattle
Monday, October 15, 2012
2:30 pm–4:30 pm
(check-in: 2:15 pm)
2 General CLE credits; tuition $50

In this two-hour lecture plus Q&A, presented by NYT bestselling, award-winning author and investigative journalist Edwin Black, he ties the relationship between IBM and Nazi Germany to an exploration of ethical practice and corporate responsibility in contemporary life.

Thank you to our sponsors:

Schulkin Rein PLLC

Community sponsors: Washington State Bar Association, International Practice & World Peace through Law Sections
The Cardozo Society of the Jewish Federation of Greater Seattle