

Confronting the Holocaust and the Continuity of Hate

can it happen again?

Acclaimed NY Times bestselling investigative historian Edwin Black, 1.6 million books in print, returns to Lakeview HS to pull the curtain back ... on the past and the future.

Mr. Black is the recipient of the International Human Rights Award, Moral Compass Award, Justice for All Award, Moral Courage Award, Drum Major for Justice Award, and the Chicago Public Library's Carl Sandburg Award, Battle Creek DLA Human Rights Award, and a Michigan State Legislative Human Rights Tribute.

1:30 PM Thurs March 26 2020
Lakeview High School in "the Black Box"

Supporting Mr. Black's 2020 Michigan tour: Flint Jewish Federation with Lakeview High School, Kellogg Community College, Adat Shalom, Cohn-Haddow Center for Judaic Studies and Department of History at Wayne State University, Israel-American Council, StandWithUs, Ravitz Foundation, Mott College, Temple Beth El, and the Suzanna Cohen Legacy Foundation, Gross Family Center for the Study of Anti-Semitism & the Holocaust, American Association of Jewish Lawyers and Jurists, EMET, and Scholars of Peace in the Middle East.