

Behind the Headlines

An insider lunch briefing for Lakeview Administration, Temple Beth El Board members, Kellogg Community College personnel

Edwin Black

The acclaimed NY Times bestselling, award-winning international investigative author of IBM the Holocaust, War Against the Weak, and Financing the Flames

11:30 AM Thursday, March 26, 2020

invitation only

Recipient of the International Human Rights Award, Moral Compass Award, Justice for All Award, Moral Courage Award, Drum Major for Justice Award, and the Chicago Public Library's Carl Sandburg Award, Battle Creek DLA Human Rights Award, and a Michigan State Legislative Human Rights Tribute.

Supporting Edwin Black's 2020 Michigan Tour: Flint Jewish Federation & Lakeview High School, Mott Middle College, Cohn-Haddow Center for

Judaic Studies and the Department of History at Wayne State University, Adat Shalom, and Kellogg Community College with Israel-American Council, StandWithUs, Ravitz Foundation, Temple Beth El, and the Suzanna Cohen Legacy Foundation, Gross Family Center for the Study of Anti-Semitism & the Holocaust, American Association of Jewish Lawyers and Jurists, EMET, and Scholars of Peace in the Middle East.